YOUR PRIVACY

- We collect personal information about you (including the information you provide in this General Claim Form) to enable us to assess your claim and related purposes. We will, where relevant, disclose your personal information (other than sensitive information, such as information about your health) to your adviser (and any licensee or broker he or she represents), to our service providers (including loss adjusters, investigators and solicitors) and other businesses we work with for this purpose. In some cases, we may need to share your information with our related companies overseas, including our head office in Japan.
- Where relevant, to assess your claim we will also disclose personal information collected from you, including sensitive information about you (such as information about your health), to medical practitioners, other health professionals, reinsurers, legal representatives and other consultants we use to help us assess your claim. By signing this General Claim Form, you consent to those organisations and other professionals collecting, and us disclosing, sensitive information about you for this purpose.
- A list of the type of our service providers, key business alliances and the consultants we commonly use is available on request.
- If you do not provide the requested information or consent to its collection and disclosure as described above, the assessment of your claim may be delayed or we may not be able to assess your claim.
- We may also disclose personal information about you where we are required or permitted to do so by law.
- In most cases, on request, we will give you access to the personal information we hold about you. Where we are unable to grant you access, we will tell you why.
- This Privacy Statement should be read in conjunction with our Privacy Policy. A full copy of our Privacy Policy can be located on our website at www.tokiomarine.com.au, or available upon request by contacting our Privacy Officer at the details contained below in this Statement.
